ALL ARE EMBODIMENTS OF THE ATMA

Bharat is the motherland of many noble souls who earned great name and fame in all the continents of the world. This is the land of valorous people who vanquished the foreign rulers in the battlefield and attained independence. This is the land which excelled in music, literature and other fine arts. Having been born in this great land of Bharat, oh boys and girls, it is your sacred duty to protect its rich cultural heritage. (Telugu Poem)

Forbearance is the real beauty in this sacred land of Bharat. Of all the rituals, adherence to truth is the greatest penance. The nectarine feeling in this country is the feeling of love towards one's mother. Character is valued far higher than life itself. (Telugu Poem)

FOLLOW SWAMI'S IDEAL AND LOVE EVERYONE

BHARAT IS THE LAND OF HIGH reputation and great bounty. Many countries have faced great dangers, but Bharat is free from these. This land of Bharat has given birth to many famous women of great chastity like Savitri who brought her dead husband back to life, and Sita who proved her chastity by coming out of blazing fire unscathed. Is there any other place in this world where we can find such women of nobility and chastity? But the Bharatiyas today are cowed down even by small difficulties. Their vision, hearing and behaviour have all become polluted. What a pity, the Bharatiyas have come to such a sorry state! Just as a mighty elephant is not aware of its strength, today the Bharatiyas have forgotten their rich cultural heritage.

Lack of Unity is the Cause of All Problems of India

An elephant is so powerful that with a mere swish of its tail, it can throw a man away. But since it is not aware of its strength, it obeys the command of an ordinary mahout; it sits when he orders it to sit and stands when he commands it to do so. The same is the condition of the Bharatiyas today. Just as an elephant submits to the commands of the mahout, the Bharatiyas, in spite of their great strength of purity and sacredness of heart, are following the dictates of others and behaving like slaves. Truly speaking, there is none in the world who can vanquish the Bharatiyas. Sathya, Dharma, Santhi, Prema and Ahimsa are the natural qualities of the Bharatiyas. They are endowed with the great wealth of Sathya and Dharma. The scriptures teach man to follow the great principle: Sathyam Vada, Dharmam Chara (speak truth, practise righteousness). But this great principle is being distorted by people today as Sathyam Vadha, Dharmam Chera (kill truth and imprison righteousness).

Everybody should ask himself, "Who am I?" He should remind himself, "I am a human being, not an animal or a beast. Since I am a human being, I should have human qualities." What are the qualities of a human being? The first and foremost quality is truth. Sathyannasti Paro Dharma (There is no Dharma greater than adherence to truth). Dharma originates from Sathya. Where there are truth and righteousness, there you find the manifestation of peace and love. Where there is peace, love would manifest there automatically. Where there is love, jealousy and hatred are conspicuous by their absence there. But, unfortunately, man today is devoid of love. Even birds and animals have love but there is no love among human beings. Today there is lack of unity in India. This is the main cause of the sorry state of affairs in our country. Where there is unity, there is purity. Where there is purity, there is divinity. Therefore, it is by unity that we can attain divinity, which is the goal of our life.

What is the reason that I am the recipient of love of so many of you? Did I send any invitation to you to come? It is your love for Me that has brought you here. My love itself is the invitation. Even if you send invitation, will so many people come to you? Even when I pass through a locality, people come out of their shops and houses on their own. What is the reason for that? It is love only. Love is God, Live in Love. This is what you are supposed to learn. On this sacred day, I exhort you to develop love.

Man should Develop Faith in Atma

Today scientists are making many inventions. They have made even double-decker aeroplanes to fly in the sky. But, how many people are losing their lives! In ancient times, life was not that full of dangers. Today man is full of fear. But, where has this fear come from? The real cause is man's lack of faith in the Atma. Na Ayamatma Balaheenena Labhyah (a weak-minded person cannot realise the Atma). Lack of self-confidence has made man weak today. He is reposing his faith in everything else except the Atma. First of all, he should have self-confidence. When he develops self-confidence, he will have self-satisfaction. Only then can he develop the spirit of self-sacrifice which will lead him to self-realisation. Therefore, if we want to attain self-realisation, we should first develop self-confidence. In fact, self-confidence is the foundation of the mansion of our life, in which self-satisfaction are the walls and self-sacrifice is the roof. When the foundation is strong, the walls and the roof will also be strong and safe. But, today, the foundation itself is weak. Then, how can the walls and roof stand on it? Self-confidence, self-satisfaction and self-sacrifice are the essential steps to self-realisation.

Bharat is the land of humanness. That is why this country is safe from various dangers and calamities which are occurring in other parts of the world. The Bharatiyas are leading a comparatively happy and peaceful life although peace has been disturbed in many parts of the world. Today pollution is widespread everywhere. Food, water, air – all have become polluted due to the misuse of science and technology. To a large extent, India is still safe from this all-pervading pollution. It is therefore necessary that we do not put science to indiscriminate use. On the other hand, we should promote humanness which will give us great strength. There is no power greater than the power of humanness. In fact, man is potentially divine. If somebody asks questions, "Where is God?", the simple answer is, "Man himself is verily God."

If you want peace, you should look within. There only can you find peace. Everybody is endowed with peace. You can be called a true human being only when you develop inner vision. Animals and beasts do not have this inner vision. You are not an animal or a beast. You are a human being. Therefore, you should lead the life of a human being. If you lead your life like an animal, then how can you call yourself a human being? Kama, Krodha, Lobha, Moha, Mada and Matsarya (desire, anger, greed, delusion, pride and jealousy) are all animal qualities. A human being should not have all these bad qualities.

The Vedas declare, Chandrama Manaso Jataha, Chaksho Suryo Ajayata (the moon was born out of the mind and the sun out of the eyes of the Supreme Being). Our Atma is our strength. There is no strength superior to it.

Education should Give Knowledge of the Self

Man should acquire education which gives the knowledge of the Atma.

In spite of his education and intelligence, a foolish man will not know his true Self and a mean-minded person will not give up his evil qualities. (Telugu Poem)

Modern education leads only to argumentation, not to total wisdom. What is the use of acquiring education which cannot lead you to immortality? Acquire the knowledge that will make you immortal.

(Telugu Poem)

When you see oneness of the Atma in everyone, then you will experience that you yourself are also the embodiment of the same Atma. You will realise, "I am the Atma and all are my images." When you look into the mirror, you see your own reflection in it. All the bodies are like the mirror. You should see your own image in all of them. Only then will you attain supreme peace.

Modern education does not provide true knowledge. It helps you to earn money and meet the needs of your family. People today are spending lakhs of rupees and sending their young children to overseas countries for studies. But all this money is wasted and children also get spoiled. Here is a small incident to illustrate this.

Once the parents of a student took him to a temple before his departure to a foreign country for higher studies. They advised him, "Dear son, this deity is the Divine Mother to one and all. She is the mother of the universe. You should never forget her. Constantly contemplate on her, wherever you are." They, in fact, extracted a promise from him to that effect. As soon as the boy set his foot in the foreign country, he totally forgot about the Divine Mother, fully immersed as he became in the new environment. After a lapse of three years, he returned to his native place, fully accustomed to the foreign way of life. The parents took him to the same temple straight from the airport for the Darshan of the Divine Mother. As soon as he entered the temple, the boy, instead of offering salutations to the deity, greeted her in English, "How are you, Madam?" The parents then chided the boy and asked, "Is it what you have learnt there? We sent you abroad spending so much money. But you have forgotten even God!"

Many students who go abroad acquire bad thoughts, bad habits and bad qualities. In fact, there is no necessity for anybody to go to foreign countries for anything. The bounty that you find in Bharat cannot be found anywhere else. Having been born in this blessed land and calling yourself Bharatiyas, what is the use if you forget your culture and moral values? Nobody can describe the greatness of Bharat. The Bharatiyas should first of all develop self-confidence and adhere to ethical, moral and spiritual values. But, unfortunately, people today lack morality. That is why life today has become an endless trouble. Many overseas devotees are inviting Me to their countries. They are prepared to bring even special planes. But I do not want any planes or comforts. I want only devotion.

All love Me and I love all. I don't have any enemy. But some people do not understand My love and take to wrong ways even after receiving My sacred love. Some of them even start opposing Me if their wishes are not fulfilled. Will they derive any benefit if their wishes are fulfilled? No. They will actually come to harm. In our college also, we put a certain limit on the students and give them proper training. Look at the students of our college! They do not have even a trace of hatred. All of them gather around Me, lovingly calling Me, “Swami, Swami, Swami”. They shed tears when they take leave from Me.

When you see outside colleges, can you call them colleges at all? The students there do not show respect even to their own parents. Parents should be considered as sacred. Matru Devo Bhava, Pitru Devo Bhava (revere your mother and father as God) is the injunction of our scriptures. Mother is God, father is God, friend is God. In fact, all are the very forms of God. Unable to understand this truth, we say, “such and such person is my opponent and my enemy who would put me to trouble.” In this way, we fill our mind with hatred towards others. Yad Bhavam Tad Bhavathi (as are the feelings, so is the result). Whatever type of feelings we have, we get the same type of result. We develop hatred towards even those who come to us with love. There is nothing great in doing good to those who help us. But Sai does good even to those who try to harm Him. You should also follow this principle and do good even to those who harm you. This is the quality of a true human being. You should develop this quality, considering everybody as divine. Daivam Manusha Rupena (God is in the form of a human being). God incarnates on earth in the form of a human being. See any picture of a divine incarnation. He is portrayed as a human being. See the picture of Rama and Sita. They are all in human form.

See Oneness of Atma in All

All human beings are the embodiments of the Atma. Physical forms and names may be different but the Atma in everyone is the same. Ekatma Sarva Bhutantaratma (one Atma dwells in all beings). This feeling of oneness should be developed in children from an early age. This principle of equality of mankind should be inculcated in students in their young age. You may think that it is difficult to observe this principle of oneness, but it is not so. There is nothing more blissful than this. Even when your opponent comes before you, you should offer salutations to him and greet him, “How are you, brother?” Then, he will also respond, “How are you, brother?” He will not be angry with you. Why? When you call him brother, he will also consider you as a brother. People will develop feelings of opposition or trust towards you, depending upon the type of language you use. Visualise the oneness of the Atma in everyone, though the body, mind, intellect and Chitta (mind-stuff) are different.

When you see oneness of the Atma in everyone, then you will experience that you yourself are also the embodiment of the same Atma. You will realise, “I am the Atma and all are my images.” When you look into the mirror, you see your own reflection in it. All the bodies are like the mirror. You should see your own image in all of them. Only then will you attain supreme peace. It cannot be attained merely by the performance of Japa, Tapa, (recitation and penance) Yoga and Yajna. People search for peace everywhere but they cannot find it anywhere. They see only pieces outside! If you want peace, you should look within. There only can you find peace. Everybody is endowed with peace. You can be called a true human being only when you develop inner vision. Animals and beasts do not have this inner vision. You are not an animal or a beast. You are a human being. Therefore, you should lead the life of a human being. If you lead your life like an animal, then how can you call yourself a human being? Kama, Krodha, Lobha, Moha, Mada and Matsarya (desire, anger, greed, delusion, pride and jealousy) are all animal qualities. A human being should not have all these bad qualities.

Do not hate anybody. I do not have even a trace of anger or hatred towards anybody. That is why everybody loves Me. There is only love in Me. Even if I go to a dense forest, all the people will follow Me there also. It is My love that attracts everybody towards Me. There are however some people who bear hatred even towards Me. But it is none of My fault. It is all their own imagination. I don't have anger towards anyone. People wonder, how Swami is always peaceful although He meets so many people during the day! Peace is natural to Me. I am always cheerful. I never put on a 'castor oil' (melancholy) face. I always have a smiling face. I exhort all of you also to be cheerful always. Your happiness is My great joy. You should see the reflection of My happiness in you. It is not My fault if you develop hatred. What is the reason that I am the recipient of love of so many of you? Did I send any invitation to you to come? It is your love for Me that has brought you here. My love itself is the invitation. Even if you send invitation, will so many people come to you? Even when I pass through a locality, people come out of their shops and houses on their own. What is the reason for that? It is love only. Love is God, Live in Love. This is what you are supposed to learn. On this sacred day, I exhort you to develop love.

Unity of the World is Imminent

Very soon, the entire world will be united and Bharat will have a great name and

There is no necessity for anybody to go to foreign countries for anything.

The bounty that you find in Bharat cannot be found anywhere else.

fame. After 28 years from now, the entire world will become one. Everybody will feel proud to call himself a Bharatiya. Nobody will say, "I am from Karnataka", "I am from Tamil Nadu", "I am from Kerala", etc. Wherever you go, you should say, "I have come from Bharat." Karnataka and all other States are parts of Bharat. Without Bharat, how can there be Tamil Nadu or Karnataka? Limits have been created by politics and political parties. We do not belong to any party. We have only one party and that is love, love, love! (loud applause). Therefore, you should develop love. Then you will be respected wherever you may go. People will then give you whatever help you need and treat you like their brother or sister.

Love is always selfless. There should not be even an iota of selfishness in man. But sometimes he develops selfishness, anger, hatred, etc., on his own. They are not given by God. God has given only love to everyone in equal measure. Man may lack anything but

Holy Christmas at Prasanthi Nilayam

THE HOLY FESTIVAL OF Christmas was celebrated at Prasanthi Nilayam in an environment surcharged with devotion, dedication and sacredness. A large number of devotees came from overseas countries to take part in these celebrations and offer their obeisance to Bhagavan Sri Sathya Sai Baba. The entire Prasanthi Nilayam bore a festive look on this auspicious occasion. Bhagavan's residence, various temples, office and canteen buildings in the complex were decorated with Christmas trees, stars and nativity scenes. Sai Kulwant Hall, the venue of the celebrations, was adorned with very attractive and beautiful decorations and lights. Illuminations on all these buildings at night presented an enchanting look. Programmes on this occasion were spread over three days, on 24th, 25th and 26th December 2008.

Christmas Carols by International Adults Choir

On 24th December 2008, the international adults choir presented a delectable programme of Christmas carols in Sai Kulwant Hall. Bhagavan inaugurated the programme by lighting candles at 4.45 p.m. in the beautiful altar set up on the dais. Commencing their programme with a devotional song in praise of Lord Ganesh, the choir, comprising 568 ladies and 222 gents, enthralled the huge gathering in Sai Kulwant Hall with Christmas carols for more than an hour and a half. The entire assembly of devotees felt uplifted and elevated by the feelings of love and devotion generated by the soul-stirring singing of the Christmas carols by the choir to the accompaniment of sweet music. At the end of the programme at 6.15 p.m., Bhagavan showered His blessings on the singers and materialised a gold chain for the director of the choir. Meanwhile, Bhagavan blessed the Prasadam which was distributed to the entire assembly of devotees in Sai Kulwant Hall. The programme came to a close with Arati to Bhagavan at 6.30 p.m. after a brief session of Bhajans led by the university students.

Grand Christmas Function

On the morning of 25th December, the holy Christmas day, Bhagavan came to Sai Kulwant Hall in His sparkling white robe amidst Vedic chants at 8.35 a.m. in a grand procession which comprised children and youth dressed as angels, three wise men of the orient and various other legendary characters associated with the birth of Jesus. After showering the bliss of His Divine Darshan on the devotees in Sai Kulwant Hall, Bhagavan came to the verandah where He lighted candles on the cakes placed there and performed the cake cutting ceremony. After Bhagavan was seated on the dais, the students of Sri Sathya Sai University played Christmas carols on their orchestra, surcharging the environment with holy spirit of Christmas. This was followed by an equally beautiful programme of instrumental devotional music presented by the students of Sri Sathya Sai Primary School, Prasanthi Nilayam on their violins. When they started playing “Jingle Bells”, three students dressed as Santa Claus came to the dais with their bags of chocolates and got them blessed and sanctified by Bhagavan. Spreading the joy of Christmas in all directions, they danced their way into the rows of devotees and distributed fistfuls of chocolates among them. The last item of the morning programme was Christmas carols interspersed with meaningful commentary. This programme was also presented by the students. At the end of this delightful programme, Prasadam blessed by Bhagavan was distributed to all. The morning programme came to a close with Arati to Bhagavan at 10.00 a.m.

Bhagavan’s Christmas Message

On the afternoon of 25th December 2008, Bhagavan blessed the devotees with a nectarine Discourse. Two speakers addressed the gathering before Bhagavan’s Discourse. Introducing the two speakers, Sri John Behner, the coordinator of the Christmas programme, expressed gratitude to Bhagavan for His permission to hold Christmas programme in His Divine Presence and thanked the devotees who helped in making the programme successful. He had a special word of praise for the groups which set up marvellous decorations and lights. The first speaker, Smt. Gisela Sebastian of Germany, remarked that Christmas at Prasanthi Nilayam was celebrated in true Christmas spirit which provided divine experience to the devotees. She also narrated how she learnt to have relationship with God when Bhagavan miraculously cured her and gave her a new lease of life. The second speaker Sri Ted Henry of U.S.A. observed that the incarnation of Bhagavan on earth was the fulfilment of the promise of Jesus Christ who said, “He who sent me among you will come again.” Talking about the work done by him in publishing the stories of devotees, the distinguished speaker remarked that listening to the marvellous stories of Bhagavan’s divinity was an ennobling and elevating experience. After these two speeches, Bhagavan gave His Christmas Message, in which He exhorted the devotees to do Atma Chintana and Daiva Chintana (self-enquiry and contemplation on God) and consider everyone as the embodiment of Atma. There was only one thing that was eternal in this temporary and changing world, and that was the principle of the Atma, said Bhagavan. That, Bhagavan added, was in fact the principle of love as love originated from the Atma. Man should therefore treasure love in his heart, observed Bhagavan. Bhagavan concluded His Discourse with the Bhajans, “Prema Mudita Manase Kaho ...” and “Hari Bhajan Bina ...” After the distribution of Prasadam in Sai Kulwant Hall, Arati was offered to Bhagavan at 7.00 p.m., which marked the conclusion of the programme.

Jesus: The Embodiment of Love – A Drama

The programme on 26th December 2008 consisted of two items presented by the International Children’s Choir and Sathya Sai Education (SSE) children of Southern California (U.S.A.). First, the International Children's Choir comprising about 100 children, both boys and girls, presented devotional songs dedicated to Bhagavan Sri Sathya Sai Baba. The programme began at 5.20 p.m. with Vedic prayer in Sanskrit to Lord Ganesh which the children sang with perfect rhythm and intonation. After this, the children sang devotional songs in which they poured out their hearts to Bhagavan. Their love in him is eternal. Therefore, develop love. There is no power, courage or valour greater than love. When Sita was in confinement in Lanka, her love for Rama was her only strength. She was surrounded by demonesses with swords in their hands. But she was totally unperturbed because she constantly chanted 'Rama, Rama'. Since she had the strength of Rama's love due to her constant chanting, none could touch her even though she was there for ten months. Such unwavering love gives you everything. Therefore, you should develop such unflinching love. This is what we should propagate in the world. All should become embodiments of love. Pray for the welfare of all the worlds. Samasta Lokah Sukhino Bhavantu (May all the beings presentation ended at 5.40 p.m., after which the drama "Jesus: The Embodiment of Love" was enacted by 16 children, both boys and girls. The drama presented a few selected episodes from the life of Jesus and depicted the similarities between his teachings and those of Bhagavan Sri Sathya Sai Baba. The episodes were presented through dialogues and acting of the children supported with appropriate commentary, group songs and beautiful props related to the theme of each episode. This made the presentation picturesque and realistic. Thus, this well-enacted and well-directed drama formed the grand finale of the wonderful Christmas celebrations at Prasanthi Nilayam. At the conclusion of the programme, Bhagavan showered His love and blessings on the children, posed for group photos with them and distributed clothes and mementoes to them with His Divine Hands, filling their hearts with joy and gratitude. In the end, Prasadam was distributed to all. The programme concluded with Arati to Bhagavan at 6.45 p.m.

Sometimes, I may use strong words to correct some people, but there is nothing in My mind against anybody. Your life will be sanctified and blessed when you follow Swami's ideal and love everyone. When you do so, your parents, brothers, sisters, friends, relatives, all will be happy.

LOVE IS FUNDAMENTAL BASIS OF WORLD PEACE

Embodiments of Love!

YOU HAVE BEEN PARTICIPATING in this conference for the last two days, bearing all inconveniences. You have come here to participate in it after undergoing many hardships and spending a lot of money. This is a true testimony of the purity of your heart. There are millions of people in this world but only a few fortunate ones have got this opportunity. This really is your great good fortune.

All are the Children of One God

Having come here, what is it that you are supposed to learn? There are lakhs of schools and colleges. Despite all these educational institutions, what man is required to study is his own heart. First of all, man should learn Sathya, Dharma, Santhi, Prema and Ahimsa which are present in his heart. If you learn these five values, you will become a really learned person. There are many great lawyers in this world and they study big big books. But, what can they achieve if they ultimately become liars after all their study? Similarly, there are so many doctors in this world. But, what can they achieve if they keep fighting with each other? Unity is nowhere to be seen. First and foremost, you must learn the principle of unity. All of you are brothers and sisters born to one Father. He is God (loud applause). You should firmly establish this truth in your heart that all of you are the children of the

You should understand that Swami is teaching all this only out of His immense love for you.

Today there are great advancements in the field of science. Whatever the scientists do is

Don't fear. Fear is the cause of all types of anxieties. People today are afraid of eating even fruits and vegetables because many chemicals may

When we walk in the opposite direction to the sun, our shadow will be much bigger than us. It will be in front of us. Maya is like that shadow.

But if instead we walk towards the sun, then our shadow will be behind us. However, when the sun is directly on our head, our shadow will be under our feet. Therefore, we should turn our mind towards God to conquer Maya. When we focus our mind directly on God, Maya will be totally subdued. We should not follow the dictates of our mind. Mind is the cause of our bondage as well as our freedom. Therefore, we should keep our mind on the right track and exercise control over it.

related only to the senses. The science which is limited only to senses is no science at all. It ignores the practical knowledge that comes from the heart. That is why the scientists are committing many mistakes and are causing great harm to society instead of doing good. They may say, they are helping society have been sprayed on them. You do not know what disease you may contract when you eat them. Today right from food, water and air, everything has become polluted. How can man lead his life in such a polluted environment? Therefore, man should make all efforts to get rid of this pollution.

Parents should Set Proper Example before their Children

You should not spoil your health just to satisfy your taste. First of all, you must take care of your health. When you are healthy, the children born to you will also be healthy. Children should join Bal Vikas because it helps them to maintain their physical and mental health. They should be taught good things in Bal Vikas like speaking truth. Always speak truth. Not only you should speak truth, but you should remain unperturbed even when somebody criticises you. Then only will you attain peace. In ancient times, Rishis (sages) used to observe Mounam (silence). Silence is very helpful in your spiritual practice. It also helps you to attain peace. From peace emerges sacred love. When you have love, you will have no enemies. Who is your enemy? In fact, none. Therefore, all of you should try to lead your life with love. Love is the fundamental basis of world peace. Today people talk of peace but peace is nowhere to be seen. Instead of peace, we see only pieces and pieces! Man is fragmenting everything into pieces. He is also trying to fragment the country into pieces. We should maintain unity of the country.

When someone asks you, where you have come from, you should say that you have come from India or America. Don't say that you have come from Puttaparthi, Anantapur or California because this is not the proper answer. The proper answer is, "I have come from India" or "I have come from America." We should develop broad-mindedness in our life. Those who develop broad-mindedness are really very fortunate. If you have broad-mindedness, your children will also have this quality. As are the parents, so are the children. Therefore, if the parents want their children to adopt the right path, they themselves should adhere to it. It is the mistake of the parents if the children do not take to the right path. They should look after their children very carefully. As the children grow up, sometimes they do not obey their parents. What is the reason? The reason is that the parents have not set a proper example before their children. Even ants observe discipline and proceed in a line. But man lacks discipline.

If you want your children to follow the right path and make progress in life, you yourself should follow the right path. Parents should not have any differences between them. There should be unity between them. They should speak in one voice. If the mother speaks one thing and the father speaks just the opposite, this is not good. Both of them should jointly guide their children. First and foremost, they should teach them to be truthful. If the children learn to become truthful, that itself is enough because truth is the basis of everything. Sathyannasti Paro Dharma (There is no Dharma greater than adherence to truth). It is from truth that righteousness emerges, and from righteousness originates peace and from peace comes love. Where there is love, there can be no violence and everybody will be peaceful. Therefore, if you want the country to be peaceful, you should follow the path of truth.

What is meant by truth? Truth means harmony of thought, word and deed. Manasyekam Vachasyekam Karmanyekam Mahatmanam (Those whose thoughts, words and deeds are in perfect harmony are noble ones). If your thoughts, words and deeds are at variance with each other, it amounts to untruth. There should be harmony between your thoughts and words when you are teaching something to your children. Then only your children will grow up to be ideal and lead a 'heartful' life and not an 'artificial' life. If you lead an artificial life, you will ruin yourself. Today everything has become artificial, even education has become artificial. Whatever books you read, whatever recitation of Mantras you do, whatever meditation you do, all that has become artificial only! This is not correct. Whatever you do, you should do wholeheartedly. People close their eyes and think that they are doing meditation. Their eyes are, of course, closed, but where is their mind wandering? It is going wherever it wants to go without any check. Therefore, first and foremost, we should control our mind. Manah Eva Manushyanam Karanam Bandhamokshayo (mind is the cause of bondage and liberation of man). As are our thoughts, so will be our actions. Therefore, first of all we should have right thoughts. Then only can we perform good actions. Good actions will lead to good results. Therefore, always have sacred thoughts. Don't follow the vagaries of the mind. The mind should be under our control. It should not control us. Mind is a mad monkey and keeps wandering. But when mind is turned towards God, it becomes quiet.

Exercise Control over your Mind

When we walk in the opposite direction to the sun, our shadow will be much bigger than us. It will be in front of us. Maya is like that shadow. But if instead we walk towards the sun, then our shadow will be behind us. However, when the sun is directly on our head, our shadow will be under our feet. Therefore, we should turn our mind towards God to conquer Maya. When we focus our mind directly on God, Maya will be totally subdued. We should not follow the dictates of our mind. Mind is the cause of our bondage as well as our freedom. Therefore, we should keep our mind on the right track and exercise control over it. Moreover, it is necessary to recharge the battery of

If you want your children to follow the right path and make progress in life, you yourself should follow the right path. Parents should not have any differences between them. There should be unity between them. They should speak in one voice. If the mother speaks one thing and the father speaks just the opposite, this is not good. Both of them should jointly guide their children. First and foremost, they should teach them to be truthful. your mind with sacred thoughts. If the 'battery' is weak, then it is very difficult to control the mind. Much depends upon the strength of your good thoughts to give proper direction to the mind. You can attain concentration only when the mind is on the right track. You should nourish your mind with truth and love because love is God, truth is God. Both love and truth are eternal. Love is truth. Live in love. Then only can you attain the steadiness of mind. Here love does not refer to worldly love but spiritual love. Only when you develop spiritual love can your mind become steady. Otherwise, it will always be unsteady and wavering. Therefore, keep your mind always turned towards God. This will lead you to peace. Many people think it is very difficult to control the mind but it is not so. When you develop love for God, mind can easily be controlled. You can never have control over it if you do not develop love for God.

Whatever you say, whatever you see, whatever you do, consider it as the work of God. Do not think that things will happen as you will them. Everything happens according to the Will of God. If everything happens according to your will, then why do certain things happen against your will? Therefore, always think that everything happens as willed by God, whether it is good or bad. If anything adverse happens, consider it also as the Will of God because, you do not know, it may ultimately turn out to be good for you. As the Gita says, Sukhadukhe Samekruthwa Labhalabhau Jayajayau (one should remain equal-minded in happiness and sorrow, gain and loss, victory and defeat).

If the parents want their children to adopt the right path, they themselves should adhere to it. It is the mistake of the parents if the children do not take to the right path. They should look after their children very carefully. As the children grow up, sometimes they do not obey their parents. What is the reason? The reason is that the parents have not set a proper example before their children.

Experience everything with love for God. When you develop love for God, everything will become good for you. But today people have only worldly love. Worldly love will make you a liar. It is only the divine love that is true love. Imbibe only the divine love. You will never come to harm when you have divine love.

Take a firm resolve: Let people say anything or criticise me in any manner, I will not give up love. Then, it will be only divine love, divine love, divine love! When you develop such firm conviction, both you and your children will attain success and prosperity.

Develop Direct Contact with God

Your body is the gift of God. When somebody asks you who you are, you cannot reply correctly. You think that you are only the body. But, in fact, body is just a bag which contains Buddhi, Chitta, Ahamkara (intellect, mind-stuff, ego), etc. When the life principle goes out from the body, it becomes an empty useless bag which will be burnt and reduced to ashes. Therefore, offer all that you have to God. Lust, anger, greed, jealousy, etc., are bad qualities. They cannot give you happiness. They will always cause suffering to you. How happy you will be when you give up all these evil qualities! Then you will have only happiness. If you want to experience this happiness, offer everything to God. You have many desires. But, can you fulfil all of them? You should not cause harm to anybody in the process of fulfilling your desires. Whatever you want, pray for it directly to God. You should always have such direct contact with God. On the other hand, if you follow indirect methods, you will only bring suffering to yourself.

So many of you have come here. Did anybody send any invitation to you? No, no. It is My love that has brought you here (loud applause). It is love that unites all. Unity can never be achieved by hatred. When your love joins with My love, it is plus, plus, plus and no minus. Therefore, you should develop love. You can win over anybody with love. Even a mighty demon can be won over with the power of love. Hanuman went to Lanka in search of Sita. He surveyed the entire area and saw Sita sitting under a tree in Ashoka Vatika (garden) with her head bent down. She was constantly chanting the name of Rama and praying to Him all the while to protect her from the wicked demon Ravana. She told Ravana that he was abjectly petty as compared to Rama because Rama was one of high character. If only a person has character, he can achieve anything. Everybody should develop the power of character. That is why I always tell My students, "The end of education is character." Without character, all your education is useless. Lawyers study law books day and night. But, what is the use if they speak untruth when they go to the court? There is no greatness in acquiring high education. You should imbibe sacred qualities in your heart which build your character. When you treasure such good qualities in your heart, you can achieve success in all that you do. When you go back to your places, perform sacred actions and inculcate good character in your children. Not only that, you should also develop the spirit of sacrifice. What is the use of amassing so much wealth?

Imbibe the Spirit of Sacrifice

You all know the story of Alexander who set out of his country to conquer the entire world. He came to India also after crossing the Indus river. On his return from India, he became very sick. He had many doctors but none could cure him. They told him that he was about to leave his mortal coil in a short while. There were thousands of soldiers under his command. But none could save him from death. Then Alexander told his ministers and army commanders that they should wrap his body in a white cloth after his death, keeping both his hands out and carry his funeral procession in the streets of his native town. When the people in the street enquired why the hands of the emperor had been kept out of the hearse, they should tell them that though the emperor had carved out a huge empire, had a big army and a number of doctors, nothing could save him from death, and he was departing from the world empty-handed.

There is no great achievement if you stack enormous amount of money in the bank, because nothing will go with you when you leave this world. Therefore, practise self-sacrifice and help the poor. Lead your life in this sacred manner. This is the way to achieve blessedness. (At this point of time, Swami gave the Hiranyagarbha Linga materialised by Him on the previous evening to Dr. Michael Goldstein and instructed him, "Perform its Abhishekam and give this sacred water to those in the Organisation who suffer from any health problem. Keep it safely in your house.")

Embellished with beautiful dances of the children and sweet Kirtans of Ramdas, the drama was an excellent portrayal of the life of this great devotee whose faith in Rama never swerved even a bit in the face of the great ordeals he had to pass through. The drama which began at 5.45 p.m. after the Divine Darshan of Bhagavan in Sai Kulwant Hall came to a close at 6.50 p.m. At the end of the drama, Bhagavan blessed the children and posed for group photos with them. in perfect synchronisation with folk songs tuned to thrilling music. The second item of the programme was a drama which showcased the importance of harmony between thoughts, words and deeds. The drama, in fact, was a repeat enactment of the play "Cheppinatlu Chestara?" (Do you do what you say?) written and directed by Bhagavan Sri Sathya Sai Baba during His school days. It showed how a young student is confused when his mother, father and teacher act just contrary to what they say and teach. They ultimately realise their mistake when the student presents his predicament before them. The drama was well directed and well enacted and all the three episodes included in it highlighted the theme of the drama. The last item of the cultural programme was devotional songs presented by Sri Abhas Joshi, a former Bal Vikas student of Madhya Pradesh. The singer enthralled the audience with three devotional songs in his melodious voice, after which Arati was offered to Bhagavan to mark the conclusion of this beautiful cultural programme. Bhagavan blessed the youth at the end of the programme. Prasadam blessed by Bhagavan was thereafter distributed to all. The programme concluded at 6.25 p.m. On the eve of the conclusion of youth camp, Bhagavan showered His blessings on the youth in Sai Kulwant Hall and posed for group photos with them on 18th December 2008. Chanting of Omkaram and Suprabhatam transported the devotees to the precincts of Prasanthi Nilayam. All devotees felt Bhagavan's presence throughout the ceremony.

U. S. A.

Devotees from Sri Sathya Sai Baba Centre in Louisville, Kentucky assisted the American Council of the Blind (ACB) during their annual conference on 6th July 2008 in Louisville.

Following the instructions given by the coordinator for the ACB Chapter in Louisville (who is also visually challenged) the volunteers were to introduce themselves, extend their left arm for the visually challenged individual to hold and then walk normally. Most of the volunteers were involved in providing assistance with registration and escorting the attendees to the lecture or exhibition halls. Some were involved in helping them find their rooms. The highlight of this conference was that nearly 2,000 visually challenged attendees from every corner of the country including Hawaii were present.

Sai Youth of Mid-Central Region were blessed with an opportunity to help a flood-affected region in Missouri on 26th July 2008. The Cherokee Lake Camp in O'Fallon, Missouri was flooded in June 2008. Sandbags were used to levee the campsite to protect it from severe flooding. As the water levels receded, Sai Youth coordinated a service project to help clean the campsite by removing the wet sandbags. Forty-two Sai Youth and adults came together in this effort. Sai Youth formed a human chain to pass the sandbags to the designated location, empty them into a mound of sand and pick up the debris around. The amount of Bhagavan's love generated was so great that the work scheduled for 1½ days got done in less than a day.

Remain Equipoised in Praise and Abuse

ONCE WHEN A NOBLE PERSON was going to a village on foot, someone started following him, making fun of him and insulting him all the way. Unperturbed by this constant tirade against him, the noble person walked on peacefully. After some time, the noble man came near the village where he had to go. The people of the village offered him a grand welcome on the outskirts of the village. Then

When the people of the village came to welcome the noble man, he asked them to serve food and cold buttermilk to the critic first who had kept deriding him all the way.

the noble person said to the villagers, "Look here, this man has come walking all the way with me and he is very much tired. Therefore, serve food and cold buttermilk to him first." Surprised to hear the words of the noble man, the man who followed him said, "I have hurled all sorts of abuses on you but you are showing so much kindness towards me. I am unable to understand this."

The teaching of the noble man was an eye-opener for the man who had indulged in criticising and insulting him.

Then the noble person replied, "Oh dear one! Did you abuse my body or the Atma? If you say that you have abused the Atma, then it means that you have abused yourself because the Atma in you and me is the same. If on the other hand, you say, you have abused my body, this also is meaningless, because my body is inert and so is yours; there is no meaning in one inert body criticising another inert body. In a way, you have not abused me but helped me by reminding me of the inertness of the body. This was a test of my understanding this truth. My dear one, you should understand that this body contains only flesh, bones and filth. Therefore, do not have attachment to this body. This body is the gift of God which should be put to proper use by performing sacred actions. Body is the temple of God. Whatever work you do with this body, offer it to the indweller who is verily God." The noble person's teaching was an eye-opener for this man. — Baba

All are Children of One God

God belongs to all. He is universal. All of you have to give up differences of every kind. Give no room to narrow parochial and national loyalties. Consider yourselves as the children of one God. You may worship God in any form of your choice, but recognise the truth that God is only one. The observance of holy days like Christmas is an occasion for realising the importance of love and harmony among human beings.
